

Okazaki Flea Market

With the theme of “Pass on your unwanted items to people who need them”, there are many flea markets held in Kyōto. Reusing things is always environmentally friendly, especially selling unneeded things, and as a buyer, you may find something you have always wanted. Feel free to go and take a look, or register* to sell your stuff!

Where: Okazaki Kōen Park

(south of Heian Jingū Shrine)

When: 10a.m. - 3:30p.m.

- ▶December 10, Sunday (if rain: December 16, Saturday)
- ▶December 16, Saturday
- ▶January 21, Sunday (if rain: January 27, Saturday)
- ▶February 3, Saturday (if rain: February 24, Saturday)
- ▶March 4, Sunday (if rain: March 24, Saturday)
- ▶March 17, Saturday (if rain: March 24, Saturday)

Note: The flea market will continue beyond March as well.
There will be about 160 booths/spaces.

*If you want to sell something, please first go to the website below (Japanese only) to get all the details, and then call the phone number above (Japanese only) to reserve a space.

Organizer:

Kyoto-shi Gomi Genryō Suishin Kaigi
(Waste Reduction Promotion Conference of Kyoto)

Website: <http://kyoto-gomigen.jp>

Tel:075-647-3444

Supported by:

Plus One Network

Website: <http://ameblo.jp/kyoto-plusone/>

Tel:090-1968-7713