

Okazaki Flea Market

With the theme of “Pass on your unwanted items to people who need them”, there are many flea markets held in Kyōto. Reusing things is always environmentally friendly, especially selling unneeded things, and as a buyer, you may find something you have always wanted. Feel free to go and take a look, or register* to sell your stuff!

Where: Okazaki Kōen Park

(south of Heian Jingū Shrine)

When: 10a.m. - 3:30p.m.

- ▶December 8, Sunday (if rain: February 29, Saturday)
- ▶December 21, Saturday (if rain: March 15, Sunday)
- ▶February 29, Saturday (if rain: March 22, Sunday)
- ▶March 15, Sunday (if rain: March 22, Sunday)

- Note: There will be about 120 booths/spaces.

*If you want to sell something, please first go to the website below (Japanese only) to get all the details, and then call the phone number above (Japanese only) to reserve a space.

Organizer:

Kyoto-shi Gomi Genryō Suishin Kaigi

(Waste Reduction Promotion Conference of Kyoto)

Website: <http://kyoto-gomigen.jp>

Tel:075-647-3444

Supported by:

Plus One Network

Website: <http://ameblo.jp/kyoto-plusone/>

Tel:090-1968-7713

京都市ごみ減量推進会議

(公益財団法人 京都市環境保全活動推進協会)